

JAZZ JOURNALING!

Printable Notebooking Pages

Created by Look! We're Learning!

© Look! We're Learning!

© Look! We're Learning!

TERMS OF USE

This product is an original creation from Look! We're Learning! All rights are reserved.

©2017 Look! We're Learning!

Content in this product is for personal or educational use only. If you would like to share this product with others, please do so by directing them to the product landing page. You may purchase an additional license to share with another educator.

Downloads of this product should not be sent directly to others.

Any direct sharing of this product is a violation of copyright protection.

Graphics by Teaches Third in Georgia, Sonya DeHart Design, and the generous authors at OpenClipArt.org

INSTRUCTIONS

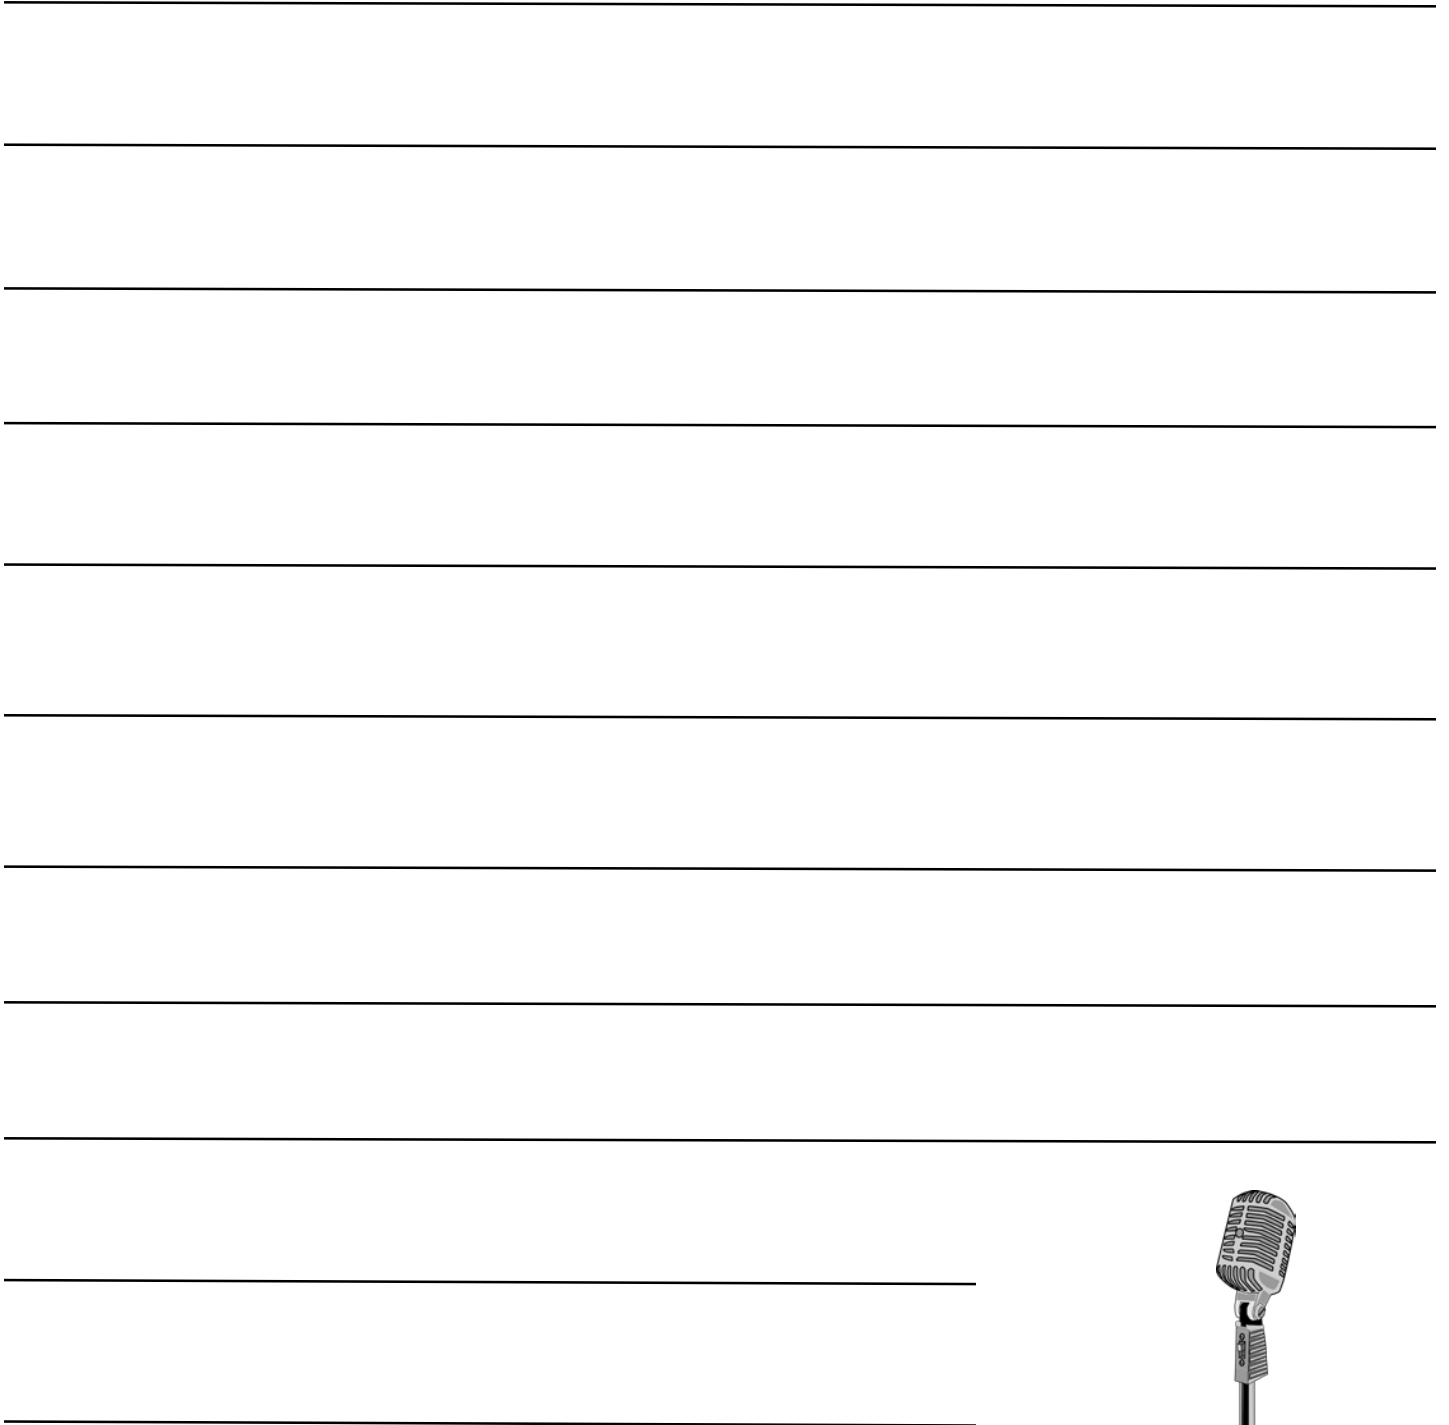

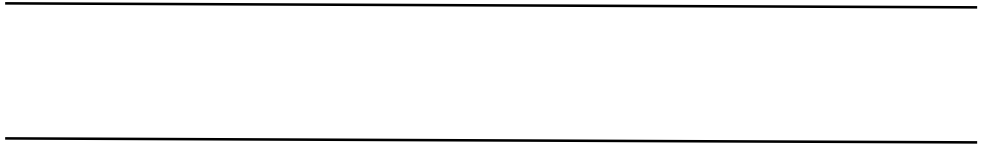

Use these printable jazz notebooking pages to help kids write down what they learn about the history of jazz, the Harlem Renaissance, or the 1920s!

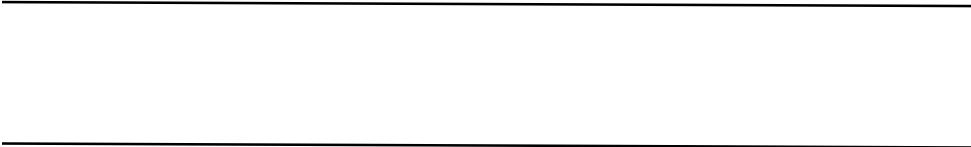

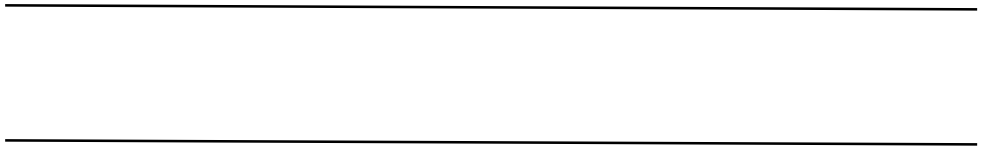

These are great for organizing facts, writing reports, or copywork!

I hope you love using these with your students!

Looking for more notebooking pages? Check out these resources!

- Discovering Sea Monsters
- Beach Notebooking Pages
- Polar Animals Notebooking Pages
- Wild Animal Notebooking Pages

Thank you for visiting Look! We're Learning!

Be sure to sign up for my weekly newsletter for news about our newest products! Plus, keep up with me on the following networks:

Twitter

Facebook

Pinterest

Instagram